Upcoming Programs for Fall

Backpack Adventures Family Reading Club will be held once a week in each center for the next 12 weeks. This program offers stories, artwork, songs and free books for the children each time they participate.

Basic Cooking will be held in Boiestown and Minto. This is a 5 week program in which new recipes are cooked each week and each participant takes home a free gift.

Nobody's Perfect will be held in Cambridge. This is a 5 week parent education and support program for parents with children birth to five years old.

Prenatal classes will be held in Boiestown. Birth partners are welcome to attend this 6 week session.

New Adventures will be offered in Chipman and Cambridge. This group meets once a week and is for parents and caregivers of babies under 12 months.

Community Food Smart is a bulk food purchasing program in which participants purchase fresh fruit and vegetables. Each participant pays a $10 yearly membership fee and $15 for every month they wish to purchase a bag of fresh produce.

Child Passenger Safety Week is the last week of September. More information about an event to celebrate this will be available soon.
